Dubbed the "Island in the Sun" for its annual 300 days of sunshine and some of the most breathtaking views in the Alps, Alpe d'Huez (www.alpedhuez.com) is the fifth-largest ski resort in France with 155 miles of runs and 67 lifts for all abilities. This high-altitude playground sits at 6100 feet and guarantees snow from early December until late April. The Alpe d'Huez Grand Domaine interconnected ski area covers five resorts and is organized with the easiest slopes on the bottom. There are more than 60 beginner/intermediate runs along with some of the best advanced terrain in the Alps. The famous Sarenne – Europe's longest black run – has an altitude drop of over 6000 feet! Nearby La Grave (www.la-grave.com), a legendary entirely off-piste ski resort, can be included on the Alpe d'Huez lift pass. There, the 6000-foot descent is unmarked and non-patrolled allowing experienced skiers to create their own route through vast glacial escapes and steep chutes, at their own risk, a world away from the marked trails, ropes, and signs of a typical ski area. And of course, skiing in Europe is not complete without après-ski! La Folie Douce (www.lafoliedouce.com) in Alpe d'Huez is France's most popular outdoor après-ski bar. Every afternoon, throngs of skiers still in their ski boots get carried away by the stunning views, lively DJs and enthusiastic crowds. The village center is full of bars, restaurants, shops, as well as an outdoor skating rink and heated swimming pool. Paragliding lessons and helicopter rides are possible at the nearby Altiport.

Our home is the ski-in/ski-out 3-star Hotel Castillan (www.castillan.fr) located near the center of the village. Julien and Stephanie Castillan are third-generation owners who take great care to ensure all guests have a memorable stay. The chalet-style hotel features cozy bedrooms, lounge, bar, restaurant with panoramic views, and spa. We'll end with three nights in Lyon (www.lyon-france.com), staying at the well-located 4-star Mercure Lyon Centre Chateau Perrache (<https://www.accorhotels.com/fr/hotel-1292-hotel-mercure-lyon-centre-chateau-perrache/index.shtml>). This historical city is older than Paris and filled with gourmet restaurants, chic shops, world-class museums, and more.
